RESPONSIBILITY / LIABILITY OF MALT BEVERAGE AND CATERING PERMITTEES

1. Application fee for a malt beverage or catering permit must be paid by the applicant.
2. In receiving the permit, the applicant assumes all accompanying responsibility and may not transfer or delegate any authority to sell/dispense beverages to another person or organization.
3. The applicant is liable for strict adherence to state and local laws governing the permit. Proof of general and liquor liability insurance in amounts determined by the City Risk Manager*(but not less than $1,000,000.00 for liquor liability) is required for malt beverage permit applicants if the location for sales will be upon city-owned or public right-of-way property. All certificates of insurance must name the City of Cheyenne as an additional insured as well as certificate holder.

* The City Risk Manager may contact the applicant concerning the activity for which a permit is requested to assist in determining general and liquor liability coverage amounts.

4. The applicant must personally supervise and be responsible for all employees who sell or dispense the beverage and acknowledges that employees must be at least 21 years of age. If requested by the City Clerk or Chief of Police, applicants may be asked to provide applicable training** to employees who will be selling/dispensing under the permit.
5. Malt beverages or alcoholic liquors purchased to be sold in conjunction with a permit must be ordered and purchased by the applicant/permittee. All sales taxes and other fees required by law is the responsibility of the applicant/permittee.
6. Approval of sales/dispensing areas and operations (including proposed consumption areas) are required per authority set out in Chapter 5.12.010 (A)(B)(C)(D) of Cheyenne City Code and State Statute.
7. Proceeds from the sale of malt beverages and/or alcoholic liquors must be credited to the applicant/permittee.
8. Applicant understands that under the permit they can not promote or advertise the sale of malt beverages and/or alcoholic liquors as a temporary bar or lounge environment.
9. Any violation of Federal, state or city laws will result in a permit being immediately revoked.
10. If operating under a catering permit, applicant must comply with applicable dispensing room requirements as set forth in City Code and State Statute.

** For Training assistance, permittees may contact the Wyoming Liquor Division (Ph. 307-777-7231) or Cheyenne Police Department (Ph. 307-637-6521).

CITY OF CHEYENNE ADMINISTRATIVE GUIDELINES

MALT BEVERAGE AND/OR CATERING PERMITS (restricted)
REQUESTING WAIVER OF OPEN CONTAINER FOR SPECIAL COMMUNITY-BASED EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

The following criteria is used as an administrative guideline when considering applications to the City Clerk for special malt beverage and/or catering permits (restricted) requesting waiver of open container, as provided by City Code Section 5.12.060, for special community-based events and activities.

A malt beverage permit authorizes sales of those beverages meeting the definition of malt beverage pursuant to Title 12, Wyoming Statutes. Pursuant to City Code Chapter 5.12.060, a catering permit (restricted) authorizes sales of wine, including champagne, and malt beverages only.

CRITERIA:

1. Purpose of application must be in conjunction with a special community-based event or activity, and should focus on a community oriented theme, event, activity or celebration which is open to the general public for participation.
2. Permit application fee must be paid by the applicant and signed by an authorized representative for the proposed event/activity. Applicants will be required to sign a written release, indemnification and hold harmless agreement as contained in the permit application form.
  - a. A Special Event/Activity checklist form, provided by the office of City Clerk, must be completed and submitted with each application.
3. In receiving a permit, the applicant agrees they are assuming all responsibility in connection with the permit, and may not transfer or delegate any authority to sell or dispense beverages authorized under a permit. Applicants can not promote or advertise to the public the sale of malt beverages and/or alcoholic liquors as a temporary bar or lounge environment.
4. The applicant is liable for strict adherence to applicable Federal, state and local laws governing the permit. Proof of general and liquor liability insurance in amounts determined by the City Risk Manager* (but not less than $1,000,000.00 for liquor liability) is required. All certificates of insurance must name the City of Cheyenne as an additional insured for the event/activity as well as certificate holder.

* The City Risk Manager may contact applicants concerning the proposed event/activity to obtain information to assist in determining the amounts of insurance coverage required for general and liquor liability.
5. Applicants assume responsibility for supervising all persons providing beverage sales/dispensing and acknowledge that those persons must be at least 21 years of age. Applicants will be required to provide applicable alcohol server training**to those persons who will be selling/dispensing under the permit.

6. Sales/dispensing locations and consumption boundaries for an event/activity will be determined and approved by the Chief of Police, Community Recreation and Events, City Risk Manager and City Clerk. Sales/dispensing and consumption boundaries will be adequately marked and flagged for the duration of the event as required by the Chief of Police, Special Projects Director and City Clerk.
    - a. All beverage products to be dispensed will be provided in non-glass, non-breakable containers (example: plastic cups).
    - b. In addition to authority provided by Chapter 5.12.010 of City Code, the Chief of Police may impose any recommendations or requirements deemed necessary to provide for on-site monitoring of permit activities affiliated with sales, dispensing and consumption and to ensure compliance with laws and regulations
    - c. Drinking games/competitions are not allowed.
  7. A suitable drawing of the site of the proposed area for the event/activity (including proposed consumption boundaries) must accompany the application. The drawing must depict such areas as the sales/dispensing locations, location of any affiliated activities, such as food stands, temporary vendors, etc. A list of affiliated activity participants/vendors must also be submitted with the application.
  8. The Chief of Police reserves the right to deny approval of any application for the health, safety and welfare of the public.
- ** For Training assistance, permittees may contact the Wyoming Liquor Division (Ph. 307-777-7231 or Cheyenne Police Department (Ph. 307-637-6521).
